On Display: John Miller's
Wood Art Mandelas

or more woods and make a picture. I started with the Yen/Yang in walnut/maple. That grew into cats and dogs incorporated into the Yen/Yang. Then came the Shree Yontra. I made lots of them starting small then bigger and then bigger yet. I enjoy making them. Then I started the animal track series. I really enjoy the natural feeling of the wood logs—the different grain patterns.

I now have a little gallery in KC, sold stuff at the Spirit Fair and TS Camp. I really need to get better on the computer so I can get stuff on Etsy, where you sell artsy stuff online world wide!

Always remember, nothing makes a man more productive than the last minute!!

- John Miller

I guess I've done artwork all my life. From construction projects to recurve bows to airplanes and even some you would actually call artwork. I guess you could call 'Gomer', the eagle on top of the Columbian, art.

Ten years ago or so, I started making Intarsia, where you take two

Search & Find

In our last newsletter, we hid a total of 77 hearts: page 1 had 49 hearts, page 2 & 3 had 7 each, and page 4 had 14. There was also a bonus heart hidden inside a photo. Jan./Feb Winners: Sue Gordon (78), Bob & Kim Owens (78), Doug Wietharn (77), and Eva Burgoon (77).

We lost all of our shamrocks! Try your luck and count all of the shamrocks in this issue and call Lisa or Sara (785-456-2021) with your number. Please limit to one guess per person. If you're correct, you get three free punches on your card! We will be hiding a new image to find in every issue, so keep your eyes open!

Money Bag Winners

February: Timothy Tastove

Timothy was not present at the time of the drawing and the pot was raised to $35. There was no drawing in January. Join us Mar. 10th for a chance to win!

MOVIE DAY!
